

A large hexagonal grid, approximately 20x20 cells, with a color gradient. The top edge features a row of lighter colors (yellow, light green, green) that transitions into a row of darker colors (dark green, dark blue, dark purple) as it moves away from the top. The rest of the grid is filled with dark purple cells, creating a sharp contrast with the lighter top edge.